The announcement of Obed Foote as a candidate for the office of collector on the democratic ticket will be found elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Foote has for some time been a resident of Grant County and is well and favorably known to our people.

According to the Rio Grande Republic, El Heri is making a reputation for himself as a lawless gambler at Las Cruces. Our local officials will have to keep up and practice or they will have to let the old Silver City boys come in and beat them.

The latest legal excitement here last week was the proceedings in chancery in the case of Mrs. Hayman & Co. vs. John T. Cline, before R. P. Barnes, special master, when Joseph Boone, Esq., of Deming and Messrs. Fowler and Bell of this place, all representing Mr. Cline, made a gallant stand against the legal onslaught of O. D. Bantz, Esq., the legal eagle, who was fighting as gallantly for Messrs. Hayman & Co. for a two days' hearing however the case had to be postponed till the 20th inst., when the fight will be renewed.

a good idea to get up a week of sports, to take place here some time during the autumn. The idea so far is to rent the L. C. racetrack and put a high, solid board fence about it. In this enclosure to have a regular program of sports of all kinds for a period of six days. The sports would include clay pigeon shooting, lawn tennis matches, football games, horse races, wrestling and boxing, foot racing, jumping and so on. Prizes would be offered for the different events, and challenges would be sent to all the surrounding towns. An entrance fee would be charged at the gate. Lots of enjoyment would be had from such a plan well carried out, and it is to be hoped that those who are talking about it will go vigorously to work and make it a fact. They would receive lots of encouragement.

The cattle men are talking of holding a meeting at Silver City some time soon for the purpose of organizing a general southwestern round-up to take in all the country from the Rio Grande to the Arizona border. Very little work of this kind has been done with the cattle for years past and it is believed that a great deal of good could be done by such a round-up. All the cattlemen who have heard of the proposition so far have expressed themselves favorable to it, and many have wondered that it had not been done before. There is now lots of water throughout the country and there will be sufficient grass to enable this to be done. It is to be hoped that those moving in the matter will call the meeting at once.

A number of our musical people have had a meeting and organized the Silver City Opera Co. for the purpose of giving the Little Tycoon during court week. Geo. Norton was elected president; Geo. Hauser, secretary and treasurer; Frank Nichol, stage manager; Prof. Schaffner, musical director, and Mrs. Morrill, pianist. A committee consisting of Messrs. Barnes, Hauser and Nichol was appointed to select the opera. Librettos and scores will be sent for at once and on their arrival, rehearsing will be commenced. The L. T. and D. club will probably give Wang somewhere about the same time, so the town promises to be very musical.

Cipriano Ravel was sent up from Deming last week and lodged in the County jail to await his trial for breaking into John Decker's place in Deming. When discovered he had a bottle of whiskey and a cornet wrapped up in a blanket ready to carry off. He made a most determined effort to escape and, after getting part of a charge of small shot in his left hand from Watchman Jas. Hughes, was finally captured and locked up in the calaboose.

H. H. Whitehill has a peculiar looking sort of tool weapon which was brought up to him last week from the Mexican border by one of his sons. It was found on the border by Jas. Deaton. The instrument has a steel blade some seven or eight inches long and about four inches wide, is sharpened at the point and on one side, has a cross guard and dagger handle, and is enclosed in a silver sheath. Much speculation has been indulged in as to what it is. The probability is that it is an infantry soldier's intrenching tool.

A decision against the Central townsite was rendered last April by the Land Office land office. John J. Bell and J. R. McFie, the attorneys for the townsite, took an appeal to Washington. The commissioner of the general land office has rendered his decision on the appeal, reversing the local office and declaring the validity of the townsite entry. A patent for the townsite is to be issued at once.

The best rain and biggest flood that we have had so far this season came down on Saturday. Under the pressure of the first part of the flood, coming down from the Colorado Flat, the San Vicente Cattle Co.'s dam was broken through again in the same place that it was smashed during the last flood. The country got a much needed soaking.

John F. Kious, one of the most popular of the young men who came here in the early '80s, announces himself in this issue as a candidate for the new office of collector. Mr. Kious is a courteous gentleman, an excellent business man and one against whose reputation never a word has been even whispered. He will have strong backing in the primaries.

A Lordsburg boy thought it would be great fun to become a tramp, so he ran away from home on a Southern Pacific freight train. After being put off the train at Bowie his father, who had been telegraphing all over the country, heard of his whereabouts and had him shipped home, a sadder and wiser boy.

Steve Uhle has bought the buildings on the southwest corner of Broadway and Yankee street from R. George of Washington. The buildings include those occupied by Mr. Uhle himself and the butchery and shoemaker's shop adjoining. Mr. Uhle is one of our prosperous Silver City citizens.

The stonemasons are hard at work on the foundations of the new Normal School building. They are of massive sandstone laid in trenches dug out of the natural concrete, and unless deliberately destroyed, should last as long as the hill on which they are going up.

King Wade's many friends in this part of the Territory will be pleased to hear that he is prospering at Corral, where he is now the owner and proprietor of The Alhambra, the leading hotel of that thriving camp.

A race will be run here next Monday between Harry Whitehill and Frank Hooker—distance 100 yards—for $25 a side. Both men are speedy, and each thinks he can win. Some money is being bet on both sides.

Mining and Milling.

Jas. Martin has made a strike of high grade gold and silver ore in the Carlisle district.

Two carloads of iron ore are now being shipped daily from the Hanover mines to the Pueblo smelter. The Santa Fe road has made a rate of $3.50 a ton from Hanover to Pueblo on 100 lbs. This has enabled these mines to restart.

The machinery for the Confidence mill is being forwarded from here as rapidly as the teams can come in to haul it out. The works are expected to be completed during the early part of September and to start up about the middle of the month.

The Little Fannie and the Deep Down mills have started up in the Mogollons and the ranches are going out every trip from here loaded down with men going back to work. If sufficient rain falls these mills and mines will keep large forces steadily employed for the next two months. That good old stand-by, the Maud S., never closes down during the drought and keeps pounding away, turning out gold and silver with its old-time regularity.

Alex. Morehead and Harvey Smith are placing on their mines west of Pinos Altos. They have a substance of water and are working on a streak of pay dirt 2 1/2 feet wide, which runs from 1 cent to 5 cents to the pan. They are running for an old underground channel, and think they have got it, but are not certain as yet. They have done over $2000 worth of development work and have the property in good condition. The gold so far washed out is light, but as they get down to bedrock they expect to strike corner gold and more of it.

CROP BULLETIN.

Of the New Mexico Weather Service For the Week Ending August 8.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE, Weather Bureau.

Bulletin No. 12.—The weather during the past week has been "very favorable for all kinds of crops and fruits. Partly cloudy weather with frequent showers has been the prevailing condition. The southern part of the Territory has been favored with a reasonable amount of rainfall, but it was rather unevenly distributed.

In the favored localities many late crops that were suffering severely for water are now starting up and with a fair amount of rain during the present month will make a partial crop. The ranges in the south, that were nearly burned out by the long drought, are beginning to show signs of life but a large amount of rain will be necessary to insure a good supply of feed for the winter.

In the northern part everything has made splendid progress during the week. The ranges are reported to be in excellent condition. The principal hay product of the Territory is alfalfa, and the reports indicate that up to date the amount produced is about the average in the northern part but much below the average in the south.

The following extracts from a few of the reports of the crop correspondents received at this office will be of interest: Springfield—Rainfall, .02 of an inch. Grass fine, no better at this time of year in ten years. Good prospect for corn, oats and alfalfa.

Hall's Peak—Everything making excellent progress. A splendid growing week. Rainfall during week 1.60 inches. Citrus—Fruit in fine condition. The rains of past few days of great benefit as they were slow and steady. Rainfall during the week .213.

Watrous—On August 1, the heaviest fall of rain for years, over two inches. River swollen, running over banks. Alfalfa much injured, except that in stack. Very good outlook for corn and growing crop of alfalfa. Total rainfall during the past week was .343 inches.

Callinas Spring—The rains have been scattering the past week but most crops are doing well. Rainfall, .12 of an inch. Las Vegas—The week has been cool and damp and grass and crops have come forward well. Rainfall .22 of an inch.

Las Vegas—Conditions have been more favorable for all crops, the frequent rains in the mountains have increased the supply of water for irrigation. More rain is needed for the grass on the ranges. Second crop of alfalfa is being cut, and is much lighter than the first, owing to lack of water for irrigation. Immense yields of fine potatoes are being dug for market in the mountains.

Alma—Condition of range and cattle improving. All crops growing fast and plenty of water for irrigation. Rainfall .55 of an inch.

Roswell—The outside country begins to show the need of rain to lay the dust and freshen the grass, cattle doing well and range is good and all crops growing finely. Melons, corn and fruit plentiful in market.

Rincon—Rain and cloudy days have been the rule during the week, adding very materially to the prospects for late crops and for range.

The infantry from Fort Bayard were paid off yesterday at Raton and Trinidad. Col. Bliss had asked that they should not be paid off till their return here, but since that the regiment has remained north several weeks. The question now is whether the men were paid off to enable them to settle their debts before starting for home, or whether it means they are going to remain where they are for a while or two longer.

Deming—In this city on August 8, 1904, Newton Bradley, aged 73 years. The many friends of Mr. Gordon Bradley, Mrs. Dr. Woodville and Mrs. C. P. Crawford sympathize deeply with them in their irreparable loss.

"Miss Streeter is learning to ride a bicycle."

"How is she succeeding?"

"Oh, she doesn't get on very well."

"Life."
